when brazil was honored at the frankfurt book fair in 2013 the brazilian author luiz ruffato opened the event with a provocative speech claiming that literature through its pervasive depiction and discussion of otherness has the potential to provoke ethical transformation this book uses ruffato's speech as a starting point for the discussion of contemporary brazilian literature that stands in contrast to the repetition of social and cultural clichés by illuminating the relevance of humanities and literature as a catalyst for rethinking brazil the book offers a resistance to the official discourses that have worked for so long to conceal social tensions injustices and secular inequities in brazilian society in doing so it situates brazilian literature away from the exotic and peripheral spectrum and closer to a universal and more relevant ethical discussion for readers from all parts of the world the volume brings together fresh contributions on both canonical contemporary authors such as graciliano ramos rubem fonseca and dalton trevisan and traditionally silenced writing subjects such as afro brazilian female authors these essays deal with specific contemporary literary and social issues while engaging with historically constitutive phenomena in brazil including authoritarianism violence and the systematic violation of human rights the exploration of diverse literary genres from novels to graphic novels from poetry to crônicas and engagement with postcolonial studies gender studies queer studies cultural studies brazilian studies south american literature and world literature carves new space for the emergence of original brazilian thought the colombian gothic in cinema and literature traces the aesthetic and political development of the gothic genre in colombia gabriel eljaiek rodíguez shows how in the hands of colombian writers and filmmakers gothic tropes are taken to their extremes to reflect particularly colombian issues like the ongoing armed conflict in the country since the 1950s as various left wing guerillas government factions and paramilitary groups escalated violence in this context collectives such as the cali group challenge both the centrality of us and european gothics as well as the centrality of bogota centered perspectives of colombian politics and conflict the book demonstrates how writers and filmmakers transform the european and american gothic to show genealogical links between colonization imperialism and domestic elites maintenance of social inequalities
